

Date Questionnaires Collected March 2016 (4 weeks)

100%	I am a patient at EMW Women's Surgical Center
100%	There were protesters outside the clinic when I arrived
	The protesters:
13%	did not bother me
43%	made me feel unsafe
48%	upset me a great deal
32%	came to my car before I/we got out
5%	banged on my car window pushed against my car door
34%	said abusive and hurtful things to me
41%	stepped in front of me and tried to block me
5%	pushed and shoved into me
29%	bullied and intimidated me
53%	made me feel scared and nervous
8%	pointed a video camera toward me
35%	said scary things about the EMW Clinic and the doctors
77%	put graphic posters in front of me
42%	I looked at the posters
35%	I didn't look at them
	Question moved below with comments
82%	I felt they discriminated against me for being a pregnant woman and the choice I am making
38%	I thought about going up and confronting them
12%	I did confront protesters verbally
36%	The protesters tried to direct me to the wrong place – A Woman's Choice – next to EMW
2%	I ended up going to the wrong place first
15%	I started not to come in because of the protesters
	The noise level of the protesters disturbed me:
50%	very much
34%	somewhat
13%	not at all
94%	I believe it is up to me, that is my right as a pregnant woman, to make decisions regarding my body, my pregnancy, my life, my future, and my health care.
73%	I do not understand why the police allow this kind of harassment and rioting outside a health clinic.
89%	I feel protesters should be restricted from coming close to the clinic entrance.
64%	I feel they should be on the sidewalk across the street.
	* Were you afraid that they would do something to you?

68%	No
29%	Yes, if so what?
23%	Comments in answer to “if so, what?”
9%	Additional Comments

Comments in answer to “if so, what?”

1. Yank me, try to get me not to go in
2. follow me home. cause more emotional damage. kidnap me. physically hurt me.
3. I don't understand why they are allowed to be so close.
4. touch me or be abusive
5. touch me or put a video camera in my face
6. I'm nervous around people in general and I don't do well with crowds. I was more afraid of them yelling at me, bullying me , and getting in my face.
7. Anything
8. I don't even know, but it was pretty upsetting. They are very aggressive.
9. Not physically, but emotionally. The videotaping is unfair because it exposes women and they upload them to YouTube, esp. "P82 Ministries" is the most popular.
10. Touch me. Made me want to fight.
11. They just made me feel worse than I already did.
12. Anything to stop me
13. Because of the people in the orange vests, I felt safe. The protesters were very invasive and harassing and I was very uncomfortable.
14. Post a video of me somewhere online not knowing my situation and what I'm going through
15. I was terrified. I have anxiety. She was following me.
16. Physical and/or emotional harm
17. Record my entrance into the clinic
18. Get in my face. Get violent.
19. Wasn't sure. Just didn't feel safe.
20. Touch me (put hand on my shoulder)
21. Hurt me
22. Not sure-Worried about mental health status of some of the protesters! I received the comment, "Don't kill your baby!" yelled at me-They should not be here-they do not know the situation of each woman walking through the door.
23. Attack my friend that brought me.
24. I envisioned that they would throw things at me and verbally abuse us.
25. I felt judged and somewhat fearful they would physically touch me in an attempt to stop me from entering the clinic
26. Invaded my personal space. Just annoying when you're already faced with a tough decision in life you have idiots that don't have anything better to do with their time.
27. Yell or be violent
28. I was just nervous that the one guy chanting the KKK had a gun.
29. Touch me, like grab my arm and pull me.
30. They make my decision more hard than it already is
31. It can be stopped, but I doubt it happens
32. I was afraid they would touch me
33. I did not know what they were capable of doing. They were bullies and intimidated me. I felt very scared and nervous. They had me very upset.

34. They walked up to me and tried handing me material and said there were other options. My fiance threw the material on the ground and they threatened to call the police and have him arrested.
35. Not allow me to go in the building. There was a male bigger than me and I feel he intimidated everyone by his size!
36. I was afraid they would attack me.
37. Bully and harass me.
38. Touch me or yell at me through the megaphone.
39. I'm not sure, but I thought they might throw things
40. Grab me
41. I thought that they would grab me, or shout personal things, or take pictures, or hurt me.
42. Bomb the building. Memorize my license plate number and seek out personal information about me using this information. Follow me home. Vandalize my vehicle. Film me. Touch me. Verbally abuse me. Diminish my feelings of self-worth.
43. Take photos of me and/or make some type of physical contact.
44. I'm not sure. It was intimidating. It was upsetting. I wish I could make them understand.
45. Push, shove, throw things.
46. Push or shove.
47. Yes and no because they kept following us, coming closer and closer.
48. The people out front were kind of hostile. It made me feel like they'd tear my living children apart. One guy with a mic talked about tying them to a tree and pulling their arms and legs off one at a time.
49. Physically harm me
50. Hit or grab me
51. Just was intimidating
52. I was afraid they would try to hurt me because they wouldn't stop yelling at me
53. I was afraid of being cornered
54. They kept pushing me and talking bad about my boyfriend and I

Additional Comments:

1. Make people feel uncomfortable. They bully and harass you
2. Escorts were really helpful. He as able to block the protesters away from her.
3. On the question about I feel they should be on the sidewalk across the street they wrote: not even that close
4. This decision was tough enough on me mentally and when I got to the clinic a woman was standing right next to my car door staring at me until I got out. When I did get out, she began harassing me and the person accompanying me. This was very hurtful. I SAID NOTHING. It was her doing. Someone will get hurt one day. It's self-defense.
5. The clinic workers out front made it easier to bypass the protesters
6. A private, gated parking area next to the clinic would be amazing, with direct entrance to the clinic.
7. on question "I feel they should be on the sidewalk across the street" - or banned completely
8. on question "I feel protesters should be restricted from coming close to the clinic entrance" was checked 5 times
9. The protesters turn a very difficult decision into an absolutely terrifying experience.
10. Compromising idea: If these people are followers of the Lord, like they said, then their goal should be to introduce people to him, instead of bombarding peple with their beliefs as they walk in. (because they are already depressed with the way they are felling) They could take a nice approach of hading people cards and and talking to them after the process, so these people will feel more invited to listen, therefore introducing them to the Lord.
11. Thou shalt not judge.

12. Beside "I feel they should be on the sidewalk across the street": I feel they should be nowhere near the facility.
13. Was on the phone telling a loved one I lived them nd a protester yelled, "Why don't you love your baby? You need to love your baby.'
14. They need to go home and go to bed and leave people alone.
15. They came up to my car yelling.
16. I want to thank all escorts. You all are very nice and caring people and helped me a great deal. God bless.
17. They also upset my boyfriend telling him he wasn't a good man.
18. Beside the question "I feel they should be on the sidewalk across the street." -Not even there. Only God can judge.
19. Beside the question "I feel they should be on the sidewalk across the street." -If that
20. It's not right we get judged for our choice. You never know someone's situation.
21. Beside the question: "I did confront protesters verbally" My boyfriend